Required Documents

The following is a list of necessary documentation required by law.

- If clients have never been married before, all they need are valid passports throughout their stay in Cuba, and tourist visas
- If divorced or widow (er), Birth Certificate legalized and translated at the Cuban Consulate in the Country of origin. This case has additional costs.* Please contact the Cuban Consulate for further information
- Final Divorce Certificate or Death Certificate if applicable, legalized and translated at the Cuban Consulate in the Country of origin this case has additional costs. * Please contact the Cuban Consulate for further information.
- Witness´ Passports and tourist visas
- Cuban Marriage Certificate will be issued, approximately, within 30 days after the Ceremony and couriered at the hotel's expense to the home address on newly weds´ documents. The legalization of the Marriage at the Consulate of the guests´ country of origin has additional cost of 150.00 CUC.
- Clients must bring all original documents with them. Marriage will be formalized in the name stated on passports.

 The names on birth certificates, passports, affidavits and all other applicable documents must all match each other exactly. For example clients should have no middle names missing from their passport. If documents are incorrect, they can be amended at the Consulate, but this will incur a charge and of course this can take away days of guests´ holiday!

 Witnesses can not be family of any of the couple according to the Cuban Laws.

Once the trip is booked, clients must send us the wedding form duly completed so Hotel can go ahead and book your wedding date with the public notary in Cuba. This form must be sent to: subcomercial.pb@cayolargo.co.cu or to the fax: + 53 45 248 088, at least 1 month prior to your departure date along with photocopy of your passports.
